2.2.5. debit funds from their Account with the Bank (Cashback) by using the Recipient Identifier, and also to receive funds into the Account (Cashback refund).

3. TRANSACTION PROCEDURE

3.1. Settlements shall be made between the Parties via the FPS in accordance with the procedures and terms established by the legislation of the Russian Federation, the FPS OCC Rules, the FPS OCC Standards, the Bank of Russia PS Rules, and the bank account agreement (BAA) between the Bank and the Client, which determines the order of operations for the relevant Account.

3.2. The Bank executes B2C/B2B Transactions on the Client's Account based on the Client's Orders. These Orders are transmitted by the Client to the Bank using the access channels specified in the RBS Contract.

3.3. The Client acknowledges and agrees that for the execution of B2C/B2B/C2B Transactions, information is exchanged via the FPS between the FPS OCC and FPS Participants to the extent permitted by the legislation of the Russian Federation.

3.4. The authenticity of the Orders is confirmed by the Client by digitally signing (DS) them according to the procedure and terms outlined in the RBS Contract.

3.5. Orders are received by the RBS System continuously, 24/7.

3.6. The Parties recognize the Moscow time zone as a common standard when working with the RBS System. The control time is the time set in the RBS System, which is ensured for accuracy by the Bank's time servers that synchronize frequency-time indicators.

3.7. In case of executing a B2C/B2B Transaction, the Client acknowledges and agrees that the Bank will perform the following verifications:

- the absence of restrictions on making debit transactions on the Account as stipulated by the legislation of the Russian Federation, bank account agreement (BAA), and the RBS Contract;
- sufficiency of funds in the Account;
- compliance of the amount specified in the Order with limits for B2B/B2C Transactions set by the FPS OCC Rules, FPS OCC Standards, PS Rules of the Bank of Russia, and (or) the Bank;

- the absence of a connection between the B2C/B2B Operation and the operation of economic measures aimed at ensuring the financial stability of the Russian Federation; compliance of the B2C/B2B Operation with the requirements of currency legislation; as well as the existence of a requirement to obtain a permit from the competent authority for conducting the B2C/B2B Operation, or the B2C/B2B Operation involving such authority falling under the permissive (authorization) procedure²;
- whether the B2C/B2B transaction conforms to the characteristics of funds transfer without the Client's voluntary consent.

Notification of refusal to accept and execute the Order for conducting a B2C/B2B Transaction, corresponding to the characteristics of funds transfer without the Client's voluntary consent, will simultaneously serve as informing on a possibility of the Client to perform the repeated transaction with the same account details of the recipient (payer) and the same amount of transfer (hereinafter referred to as Repeated transaction) and is sent in accordance with the procedure stipulated in the RBS Contract.

The Client confirms the Repeated B2C/B2B transaction by contacting the Bank using the phone number specified on the Bank's official website and providing the Client's code word on the Business days as they are defined in the RBS Contract. If the Client, after the Bank's verification procedure, confirms the Repeated B2C/B2B transaction, the Client shall proceed to reformulate the B2C/B2B Transaction similar to the rejected one, and the Bank will execute it provided that the Bank does not have information from the Bank of Russia from the Database, there are no relevant restrictions by the Bank of Russia/FPS OCC/Receiving Bank, and if the B2C/B2B transaction does not contravene the legislation of the Russian Federation or agreements between the Parties.

If the Bank receives information from the Bank of Russia contained in the Database when conducting the Repeated transaction, the Bank shall refuse to execute the Repeated transaction of the Client.

The Bank shall immediately notify the Client about refusal to execute the Repeated transaction sending the message and specifying the reason of refusal in accordance with the procedure stipulated in the RBS Contract, as well as shall notify about the possibility of execution of the subsequent Repeated transaction.

If the Client conducts the subsequent Repeated transaction after expiry of the term established in the legislation of the Russian Federation, the Bank undertakes to execute it if there are no other reasons not to execute the subsequent Repeated transaction established in the legislation of the Russian Federation

3.8. The Bank shall not execute Orders and shall not carry out the transfer of funds from the Account in case of a negative result of any of the checks specified in paragraph 3.7 of the FPS Terms.

3.9. Funds from C2B/B2B Transactions are credited to the Account.

3.10. The Bank does not credit funds to the Account in case the C2B/B2B Transaction is associated with the implementation of economic sanctions ensuring the financial stability of the Russian Federation, as well as in the absence of permission from a competent authority to conduct the C2B/B2B Transaction or if the C2B/B2B Transaction involving the Client falls under a required approval process³.

3.11. The Client instructs the Bank, when conducting C2B/B2C/B2B Transactions, to provide the Bank of Russia, the FPS OCC, UPC Service Operator, FPS Participants, UPC Service

This consent to the processing of personal data shall be valid for the duration of the retention of documents and information containing personal data, as determined in accordance with the legislation of the Russian Federation and the agreements concluded between the Client and the Bank. The Client may revoke this consent to the processing of personal data by submitting a written revocation to the Bank either in person or through the RBS System. The Client acknowledges and agrees that the revocation of such consent may result in the inability to provide services within the framework of the Service.

3.12. Procedure for B2C Transactions.

3.12.1. Funds for a B2C Transaction may be transferred by the Client from the Account with the Bank based on an Order generated within the RBS System for the following purposes:

- Return on a C2B Transaction;
- Cashback payout.

A return on a C2B Transaction can be made only on a previously executed C2B Transaction by indicating the identifier of the original C2B Transaction by the Client in the Order for the return.

Refunds may be full or partial. The Client is notified and agrees that they may execute a refund for the full amount of the original C2B Transaction, for a portion of the amount, or execute multiple partial refunds as long as the gross amount does not exceed the amount of the original C2B Transaction.

The Bank shall monitor the amount of the refund and, in the case of excess over the original C2B Transaction amount, shall refuse to perform the corresponding B2C Transaction.

Cashback is paid by the Enterprise when it performs the transfer of funds to the Buyer (individual) using the FPS in order to pay remuneration within the framework of the NSPK JSC Loyalty Program.

3.12.2. When the Client specifies the Recipient Identifier for the purposes of preparing an Order, the information provided by the Receiving Bank to the FPS OCC is used. Subsequently, the information received from the FPS OCC by the Bank is provided to the Client for verification, including but not limited to the name of the Receiving Bank, and the first, last, and patronymic (if any) of the Recipient (information may be provided in a masked form).

3.12.3. If the Client successfully verifies the information provided, they shall sign the Order and transmit it to the Bank according to the RBS Contract.

3.13. Procedure for Conducting B2B Transactions.

3.13.1. The Bank shall perform B2B Transactions when the following cumulative conditions are met:

- The Buyer (legal entity/individual entrepreneur) and the Enterprise are registered with the FPS OCC.
- The type of activity of the Enterprise is registered with the FPS OCC.
- The payment acceptance method at the TSE (Merchant Point) is registered with the FPS OCC. A separate TSE registration is required for each payment acceptance method at the TSE.
- The UPC/Payment Link used in conducting a B2B Transaction is registered in the UPC Service Operator's systems, in the FPS OCC and allows for unambiguous identification of the Enterprise's details for the purpose of conducting a B2B Transaction.
- The B2B Transaction complies with the established FPS OCC Rules, UPC Service Rules, FPS OCC Standards, and the Rules of the Payment System of the Bank of Russia as well as the Bank's requirements for conducting transfers between legal entities and individual entrepreneurs using the FPS.

3.13.2. To conduct a B2B Transaction, the Paying Client scans the UPC or specifies the Payment Link.

In this case, the funds for a B2B Transaction can be transferred by the Paying Client from their Account based on an Order generated within the RBS System.

When the Client scans the UPC or specifies the Payment Link for the purposes of preparing an Order, the data provided by the FPS OCC upon its transfer to the FPS OCC by the Receiving Bank is used. Thereafter, the information received from the FPS OCC by the Bank is provided to the Paying Client for verification, which may include but is not limited to the name of the Receiving Bank, the name of the Payee, the payment amount, and the purpose of the payment.

If the Paying Client successfully verifies the information provided, they shall sign the Order and transmit it to the Bank according to the procedure outlined in the RBS Contract.

3.13.3. Upon receipt of the Order from the Paying Client, the Bank verifies the Order in accordance with paragraph 3.7 of the FPS Terms.
